ROBERT WHITTEL.

[To accompany bill H. R. No. 217.]

MARCH 5, 1840.

Mr. RANDALL, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Invalid Pensions, to whom were referred the petition and papers in the case of Robert Whittel, report:

That the petioner, on oath, staes that he enlisted as a private in Captain Anson's company, in the 15th regiment, on the 20th of April, 1812, and was then able-bodied, and had a sound constitution; that on the night before the battle of Williamsburg, about the 11th November, 1813, he was engaged in the line of his duty in swimming horses across the river St. Lawrence, and, while so engaged, was pulled overboard into the river, and remained in the water some time (it being then very cold); in consequence of which a palsy was produced, which has continued ever since. He was taken to Burlington, and was in the hospital there for some time; and, in 1814, was discharged as an invalid.

Abner Bishop, sergeant of the company to which the petitioner belonged, substantiates the facts as stated above, and that he believes the aforesaid disability proceeds from said exposure, and from no other cause.

The certificates of Alexander Kern and B. J. Mooers, certified to be reputable physicians, put the disability at three-fourths.

The committee therefore recommend the passage of the accompanying bill for his relief.
